The purpose of this talk is to give an overview of known results on lower bounds on Ihara’s constant $A(q)$. Emphasis will be given on recursively defined towers of function fields, which for non-prime values of $q$, have given the currently best known results. Recent development will also be discussed.